2. Jenny as most women use it,
 Who say nay when they would have it,
 With a bolde face seemed to traue it,
 With a faint looke did refuse it,
 Jocky lost his time to dally,
 Still he cries, sweete shall I, shall I.

3. She who knew that backward dealing,
 was a foe to forwardlonging,
 To avoide her owne hearts wronging,

with a sigh loves sute revealing, said Jocky sweet when you would dally,
 Doe you cry sweet, shall I, shall I.

4. Jocky knew by her replying,
 That a no is I in wooing,
 That an asking without doing,
 Is the way to loves denying.
 Now he knowes when he would dally,
 How to spare sweet shall I, shall I.
